

Family friendly science site

New in town?

Whoever is starting in new chapter of life has lots of questions:

- What does the new city have to offer for my family and me?
- Where are we going to live?
- Where will my partner find a job?
- Where is an adequate daycare center or school for our kids?
- Where can further family members live and – as the circumstances require – be taken care of?

We assist finding answers to these questions cause every single one of your family members should feel comfortable in Dortmund.
